Endodontic Preceptorship A Clinical Continuing Education Program

OVERVIEW

This program is designed specifically for dentists interested in furthering their knowledge of endodontic dentistry. The objective of the program is for participants to become familiar with endodontic clinical skills and didactic education.

PHILOSOPHY

The overall philosophy of the Preceptorship is to provide academic and clinical enrichment, specific to endodontic dentistry, to participants. This will be achieved through participation in post-doctoral endodontic didactic courses and observation of endodontic dental care. The knowledge learned during the Preceptorship will provide the information and skills needed for the participants to further their education and continue their lifelong journey of learning.

PROGRAM DESIGN/OBJECTIVES

The program is comprised of didactic seminars and clinical observation. The didactic seminars follow the schedule of the post-doctoral Endodontic Residents. When not in attendance of didactic lectures, participants will partake in clinical observation in the post-doctoral endodontic dental clinic.

CRITERIA FOR SELECTION

- Educational background and previous training in dentistry, demonstrated by a degree in dental medicine from a domestic or foreign institution.
- Commitment to improve endodontic didactic and clinical knowledge.

SCHEDULE

- This program is full-time, Monday through Saturday, 8am-5pm, for a one (1) month period.
- The program will begin every July or August.
- The program will run one (1) time each calendar year.
- Participants will be allowed 2 sick days.

COURSE COMPONENTS/DISCIPLINES

ENDODONTIC DIDACTIC LECTURES

Participants will follow the didactic schedule of the post-doctoral Endodontic Residents.

PATIENT CARE OBSERVATION
