NEIDL Agent Incident Reporting Summary October 2018 - December 2018, Q4
Date of Incident	Incident Type / Agent Involved	BSL	Transmissable Person to Person	Description	Reportable Incident	Reportable of Clinical Illness	•	Comments / Corrective Actions
, ,	Left axilla/torso contusion	N/A	No	A public safety officer reported she was hit under her left axilla area while working as a defensive tactics instructor	No	No	N/A	N/A
11/26/18	Near miss - Suit zipper incient - No Exposure	BSL4	No	ROHP received a phone call at 11:05 am from biosafety officers at the NEIDL reporting a veterinary research assistant noticed his BSL4 suit zipper was slightly open two minutes into being in the BSL4 animal room which had no animals or active work with agents. The staff person has since exited the BSL4 without incident.In further discussion with the biosafety officers, there was no concern for exposure.	No	No	N/A	EH&S performed a risk assessment. The animal space is not registered with the CDC for work with Select Agents, therefore, the risk of exposure to select agents is very negligble. All BSL-4 systems (BAS) performed as designed.