FACULTY POSITION

The School of Social Work at Barry University is seeking a full time colleague whose innovative teaching, practice experiences, and research agenda will support our curriculum development and education goals. Candidates should be prepared for primary teaching responsibility in a clinical MSW program. Applicants should possess a master's degree in social work, a minimum of two years of post-master's experience, and a doctorate in social work or a related discipline with an articulated research agenda, and evidenced ability to sustain progressive scholarship. Rank is Assistant Professor and compensation is determined by qualifications and experience. The selected candidate will join the Barry faculty in August, 2014.

Barry University's main campus is located in Miami Shores, Florida and offers BSW, MSW, and PhD degree programs. Faculty of the School of Social Work are committed to a collaborative work environment, quality teaching, scholarship, and the delivery of an innovative practice curriculum that prepares social work professionals for culturally relevant clinical practice in a global society. Inclusive of our four site locations, the School has an enrollment of approximately 425 full time and part time students and a reputation for exceptional education, small interactive classes, student access to faculty, and faculty involvement in every aspect of the educational programs.

Barry University is an equal opportunity employer and is committed to creating a community in which a diverse population can learn, live, and work in an atmosphere of respect for the rights and sensibilities of each individual.

Candidates should submit an electronic PDF file that includes a current curriculum vitae, an example of scholarly writing, a letter of interest that describes one's teaching philosophy and research agenda, and the names and contact information of three individuals who will provide professional recommendations. Recommenders must send all letters via e-mail to the Chair of the Search Committee on or before January 1, 2014.
