

PERMISSION TO PUBLISH MATERIAL FROM A MANUSCRIPT COLLECTION

Fill out this form in duplicate and submit both copies to the Head Librarian of the School of Theology Library. The return of the second copy, bearing the signature of the Head Librarian or of his authorized representative, constitutes permission to publish the material listed below. Please be advised that in some cases it will be necessary to also contact the author, or the literary executor for permission to publish material.

Occupation /University Affiliation: _____

I request permission to reproduce or quote the following materials (be specific, include copy of manuscript, if necessary):

_____ from the _____ collection.

This work is to be published by _____ for the purpose of
_____.

- ✓ I understand that this permission is granted for one time use only. I understand that Internet publishing requires the same permission as any other print or broadcast media. I agree to notify the Director when the work has been released by the publisher. In all cases, in addition to the copyright holder, the credit line will include:

“From the _____ Collection in the School of Theology Library at Boston University.”

- ✓ I understand that this form does not imply permission to publish the duplicated material, nor does possession of a photograph or other reproduction imply permission to publish. Permission to publish must be secured from Boston University, as well as from the copyright holder, to publish material from collections in the archive.
- ✓ I understand that this material may not be reproduced or placed on deposit at any other archive or like facility; it is for your own personal, scholarly use. Please see the departmental rules governing reproduction of material and permission to publish, as well as the copyright law of the United States “Title 17, U.S. Code.” This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law
