ON-LINE WORK

2011-present: The Levantine Ceramics Project. I am the creator and editor of this project and its companion website www.levantineceramics.org. The LCP is an on-line international collaborative website that is crowd-sourced, and allows anybody to submit and search for information about ceramics produced in the Levant—meaning parts of the modern countries of Turkey, Syria, Cyprus, Lebanon, Jordan, Palestine, Israel, and Egypt—from antiquity through modern times.

2017-present: The Tel Anafa Digital Portal: <http://telanafa.org>. This site consists of a series of student-driven essays that use individual objects found at Tel Anafa as vehicles for wider historical and cultural inquiry.
