

#BUCPUA fall events 2019

SEPTEMBER

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 6

#BUCPUA New Student Orientation and Reception

Initiative on Cities
75 Bay State Road 3:30pm-6:30pm
Join us to learn more about our programs, upcoming initiatives and events, and meet faculty and fellow students.

Mandatory for new #BUCPUA students;
Open to #BUCPUA faculty, current students and alumni
RSVP required More information

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7

#BUCPUA Jane Jacobs's Walk of the Seaport District, Boston

South Station Main Entrance
700 Atlantic Avenue 11:00am-1:00pm
#BUCPUA Professor Jim O'Connell, Ph.D., will lead a Jane's Walk through Boston's Fort Point Channel District, Seaport District, and Harborwalk. Jane's Walks are a series of neighborhood walking tours across the world that are inspired by urban activist and writer Jane Jacobs.

Open to new #BUCPUA and MET International students and #BUCPUA current students and faculty
RSVP required More information

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

#BUCPUA Academic Writing & Library Research

Questrom School of Business, HAR 306
595 Commonwealth Avenue 6:00pm-8:45pm
Join librarian Ken Liss from Boston University's Mugar Memorial Library and expert in academic writing and #BUCPUA professor Dr. William Koehler to learn valuable skills and techniques to further develop and enhance your academic research and writing.

Open to #BUCPUA community
RSVP required More information

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

2019 Sustainability Festival

Marsh Plaza
735 Commonwealth Avenue 11:00am-2:00pm
Join #BUCPUA and the UPA for the 2019 Sustainability Festival at the Charles River Campus where we'll be playing games to test your sustainability knowledge! Connect with leaders of the BU Environmental Leadership Network—24 clubs, from Net Impact to BU Outing Club.

Open to the public More information

OCTOBER

MONDAY, OCTOBER 7

#BUCPUA Portfolio and Visual Design Session

College of Arts and Sciences, CAS B18
725 Commonwealth Avenue 6:00pm-8:45pm
Learn how to create striking visual presentations and build a compelling portfolio from #BUCPUA alumni David Valecillos and Ruben Ceron.

Open to #BUCPUA community
RSVP required More information

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16

#BUCPUA Keynote Lecture: Former Massachusetts State Representative Michael Capuano

College of General Studies, CGS 505
871 Commonwealth Avenue 6:15pm-7:30pm
#BUCPUA welcomes Former U.S. Representative Michael Capuano as our Fall 2019 Keynote Speaker. A twenty-year member of Congress and former Mayor of Somerville, Representative Capuano remains committed to advancing the needs and interests of urban areas. A Q&A session will follow the presentation.

Open to the public
RSVP required More information

NOVEMBER

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7

#BUCPUA Town Hall

College of General Studies, CGS 527
871 Commonwealth Avenue 6:00pm-8:00pm
#BUCPUA will hold their annual town hall. Updates and Next Steps followed by an Open Forum for feedback and a Q+A session.

Open to #BUCPUA students, faculty and alumni only
RSVP required More information

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19

#BUCPUA Advisory Board Meeting

Kenmore Conference Room
1 Silber Way 12:00pm-2:00pm
#BUCPUA advisory board members will evaluate the Program's progress and benchmarks, along with identifying an academic pathway toward future Program outcomes. Lunch will be served. Please RSVP to Andrea Ciminelli at amcim@bu.edu.

Open to #BUCPUA advisory board only More information
RSVP required

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22

#BUCPUA Faculty Meeting

#BUCPUA will hold a faculty meeting via Zoom to address program updates, new curriculum, and course development matters. Please RSVP to Andrea Ciminelli at amcim@bu.edu.

Open to #BUCPUA faculty only More information
RSVP required