

Boston University Pardee School of Global Studies
 Institute on Culture, Religion & World Affairs: CURA

Religion & World Affairs Colloquium Fall 2017
10 Lenox St. Brookline | 1:00 - 2:30 PM

September 15

Peter Mandaville

Professor of International Affairs, George Mason University

Assessing the Impact of Transnational Religious Soft Power: Theoretical and Methodological Issues

October 6

Amod Lele

Senior Educational Technologist, Office of Digital Learning & Innovation, Boston University

Disengaged Buddhism

October 13

Tanya B. Schwarz

Visiting Assistant Professor, Department of Global Politics and Societies, Hollins University

Moving Beyond the 'Two Faces' of Interfaith Engagement

October 27

Amy S. Patterson

Carl Biehl Professor of International Affairs, University of the South

Taking Advantage of Democratic Space? Church Advocacy on Emerging Development Issues in Ghana

November 3

Tracy Kuperus

Associate Professor, International Development Studies, Calvin College

Democratization, Religious Actors, and Political Influence: A Comparison of Christian Councils in Ghana and South Africa

November 17

Yongguang "Max" Xue

School of Theology, Boston University

The Transnational Life of Reformed Presbyterianism in Chinamerica

December 1

Bin Song

Graduate Division of Religious Studies, Boston University

Confucianism, Gaponshugi and the Spirit of Japanese Capitalism

December 8

Sana Haque

Pardee School of Global Studies, Boston University

The Narrative of Islamophobia in European Media

Email cura@bu.edu for copies of papers. Attendees are requested to read papers in advance of sessions.

Co-sponsored with the BU School of Theology