

The Center for the Study of Europe at Boston University presents:

European Voices: A Reading and Conversation with British Poet Alice Oswald

Thursday, February 20, 6-7:30 PM

Katzenberg Center
College of General Studies
871 Comm. Ave, 3rd floor

Free and open to the public
Booksigning to follow

Alice Oswald is the author of six acclaimed collections. Her most recent, Memorial (2011), is a deeply moving concentration of the Iliad that preserves the deaths and lives of its soldiers alongside renderings of the epic's similes.

Moderated by Mary Pinard, Chair of the Arts & Humanities Division at Babson College.

This event takes place as part of our "European Voices" series – an ongoing series of conversations with artists and writers, activists and intellectuals exploring questions at the intersection of politics and culture.

Co-sponsored by AGNI, CGS, and the NEH Distinguished Teaching Professorship (CAS Core Curriculum). Funded in part by the European Commission Delegation in Washington DC.
