

The Center for the Study of Europe at Boston University presents:

Climate Wars

What People Will Be Killed for in the 21st Century

A lecture by Harald Welzer

Monday, March 17, 5 - 7 PM

Sargent College
635 Commonwealth Avenue
Room 102

Free and open to the public
Reception + booksigning
to follow

Join us for a lecture by Harald Welzer, sociologist and social psychologist, Professor for Transformation-design at the University of Flensburg, as well as Executive Director of the foundation FuturZwei. Welzer's main foci of research and teaching are memory, group violence and socio-cultural climate impact research. His books have been translated into 15 languages.

This event will be moderated by Henrik Selin, Associate Professor of International Relations and an expert on environmental politics, sustainable development, global governance and international institutions.

Co-sponsored by the Goethe Institut Boston and BU Europe. Funded in part by a grant from the European Commission Delegation in Washington DC.