

THE CURRENT STATE OF CULTURAL HERITAGE IN IRAQ

*

A CONVERSATION WITH JOHN RUSSELL

John Russell teaches art history and archaeology at Massachusetts College of Art.

In recent years he has written four books and co-directed archaeological excavations in the Middle East. He also served as an advisor to the Iraqi Ministry of Culture where he helped develop plans to protect sensitive cultural sites and renovate the Iraq Museum.

Please join us for this timely discussion with one of the most renowned experts in the field!

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2007

5:30 P.M.

CAS ROOM 200

Q&A to be followed by reception

Questions? lsloutsk@bu.edu or slacorie@bu.edu