

First-generation Graduate and Professional Student Symposium Creating a NASPA Profile

Below are the steps to set up a free NASPA profile.

1. Visit the NASPA login page, and select Don't have an account?

WELCOME

Please log in or create an account to continue.

Forgot your password? Clicking the Forgot Your Password link below the log in button will send you an email allowing you to change it. This link is only good for 24 hours. If more time than that has passed, you will need to click Forgot Your Password again.

Please note, you do not need access to the email address associated with your account if you do recall your password. However, you will want to update that address upon successful login.

If you forgot your password and also no longer have access to the email address associated with your account, please contact us at membership@naspa.org or office@naspa.org. Thank you.

2. The website will redirect you to a Person Account Search tool.
 - a. If you are unsure whether you have a NASPA profile, you can complete the form and the system will run a query.

Person Account Search

If you have ever had a membership, attended an event, purchased a publication, or been involved with NASPA in any way, you likely have an account with us already.

Please search below, and look for your name, current or previous email address or institution, and other details to see if you can find an old account. If you do, please contact us at membership@naspa.org so that we can gain you access to that account.

If you find no results, please create a new account. Thank you!

My Institution

Adding your institution or organization ensures you receive the best price you are entitled to for NASPA membership, events, and products; and will add value to your experience.

Search for your institution or organization by typing its name, city, or zip code in the "Primary Affiliation" field for best results search by zip code. Up to 10 records will be returned from which you may select your institution.

If you cannot find your institution from the search, leave "Primary Affiliation" blank, click the "Institution Not Found" checkbox and fill out the "Institution Name" field.
