The Pardee Periodical Journal of Global Affairs is now accepting applications for the Fall 2018 Editorial Board, due September 21st, 2018 at 11:59pm.

The Editorial Board of the Pardee Periodical solicits, selects, edits, and publishes thought-provoking work from graduate students around the world to enhance the academic discourse on global affairs and provide a platform for emerging scholars to publish their work.

The Pardee Periodical is seeking editors for the print and online editions, as well as a print managing editor, an online managing editor, and a production editor. Descriptions of the positions are as follows:

Print Editor: Responsible for selecting papers, working one-on-one with an author to edit one paper, and assisting in the production and distribution process, as well as the fundraising process. Commitment is approximately 3-5 hours per week, with the expectation that the three-week editing process may require a heightened time commitment.

Online Editor: Responsible for soliciting and selecting submissions, working with authors to edit pieces throughout the semester, maintaining online content, and assisting with the fundraising process. Commitment is approximately 3-5 hours per week.

Print Managing Editor: All responsibilities of the Print Editor listed above, with additional responsibilities of overseeing the editing process and working with the Editor-in-Chief and Production Managing Editor throughout the production and distribution process. Commitment is approximately 5-10 hours per week.

Production Managing Editor: All responsibilities of the Print Editor listed above, with additional responsibilities of leading copy-editing and production process. The Production Managing Editor may be called upon to copy-edit pieces for the online edition as well. Commitment is approximately 5-10 hours per week, with the expectation that the one- to two-week production process may require a heightened time commitment.

Online Managing Editor: All responsibilities of the Online Editor listed above, with additional responsibilities of overseeing the Online Edition processes from submission to publication. Commitment is approximately 5-10 hours per week.
