

Stephen Martiros is the founder of Kindros.com, a public benefit corporation committed to providing a safe place to help people learn about personal finance and take control of their financial lives. Stephen is a wealth management expert with more than 30 years of industry experience. Since 2010 he has worked as an independent analyst, strategist, and trustee for family offices and family foundations.

Previously Stephen served as the Managing Partner of CCC Alliance, where he helped build America's largest private network of single-family offices. He is the founder of Summitas, an award-winning B2B cloud software application for family offices. He started his career as an investment advisor with E.F. Hutton and later with Alex. Brown & Sons.

Stephen received his BS and MBA from Babson College. He is co-founder and Chair of the Babson Bertarelli Institute for Family Entrepreneurship and is the recipient of the Babson Snyder Award for Distinguished Service and the Babson Cruikshank Award for representing the highest ideals of service and loyalty to the college.
