Key Roles in the Procure-to-Pay Process

Requisitioners

Individuals who purchase products or services, for themselves or another individual, from an external supplier.

Approvers

Approvers are campus stakeholders with the authority to review and approve requisitions (e.g., cost object approvers).

Buyers

Buyers are seasoned professionals who work in the Sourcing & Procurement Department and are charged with negotiating terms, conditions, pricing, and bringing you the best total cost of ownership for the products and services procured by the University requisitioners. They work closely with requisitioners and suppliers to facilitate contracts and purchase orders to fulfill the needs of the BU community.

System Administrator & Trainers

The System Administrator and Trainer are the backbone of the support team to help manage the system, data, and catalogs. They manage the training programs for requisitioners and approvers and assist with responding to questions.
